

Sunday 23rd June

Salty Sea-Faring Adventures – morning and afternoon boat trips along the Wild Atlantic Way watching for whales, dolphins, seals and basking sharks. Prebook your tickets 087-7961456
Prices from €30pp - €50 depending on trip duration/operator.

Pirate exhibition in Dún na Séad Castle open from 11am to 6pm – adults €5 and accompanied children free of charge

Pirate Shanty Singing Workshop in Glebe Gardens with Liz Clarke in the amphitheatre from 11am to 1pm with a performance in the Square at 4:30pm

Pirates, Fairies & Animal Trail 12noon Inishbeg – guided walk through the estate, looking for hidden pirates in the gardens and woods. Meet in the walled garden. Adult + 2 children €6 (additional children €2 each)

Ye little swashbucklers and seafarin' scoundrels' fun & games in the pirate playground between 2pm and 4.30pm (fundraiser for the Wild Atlantic Pool). These include:

Man Overboard, Fishing, Welly Wanging, Walk the Plank, Shuffle Ball, Ring Throwing, Splat the Rat, What's in the Box, Hoop, Goaly shoot-out, Coin Treasure, Croquet, Colouring Competition including Tug of War & Pirate Dads versus Kids.

Entry €5 per child for unlimited fun & games and prizes for everyone.

Face Painting Fee €2 per child

Children's best dressed pirate competition with parade starting at 4.30pm from the Playground to the Square – dummies may also take part in the Parade for the final judging and prize giving.

Finish the weekend with music in the Square outside the Waterfront Bar from 5pm.

Baltimore Pirate Festival

21st June –23rd June 2019

Throughout this piratical weekend a competition will run for the best-dressed pirates

- Competition for best Dummy Pirate with €100 voucher prize for the winner !
- Photography Competition
- Sand Art Competition

Young Pirates of the Day - booty prize-giving will take place on Sunday afternoon at 4.30pm in the Square

Friday 21st June

Salty Sea-Faring Adventures – morning and afternoon boat trips along the Wild Atlantic Way watching for whales, dolphins, seals and basking sharks. Prebook your tickets 087-7961456 or online www.aquaventures.ie Prices from €30pp - €50 depending on trip duration/operator.

Pirate exhibition in Dún na Séad Castle open from 11am to 6pm – adults €5 and accompanied children free of charge

Buccaneer Bash at 7.30pm in the Baltimore Sailing Club

- €15pp buffet including wine / children under 12 yrs old €5
This event is open for everyone so come along family, friends and lone pirates!
- After-dinner shanty sing-song, raffle & treasure map competition
- Pirate Quiz in the Algiers 9.30pm onwards – 6 rounds for teams of 4 (entry fee €10 table)

Saturday 22nd June

Fastnet Tours – afternoon or evening boat trip to the Fastnet Rock and Lighthouse and en route look out for whales, dolphins, seals and basking sharks. Prebook your tickets 087-7961456
Prices €40pp / family 2+1 €105.

Pirate exhibition in Dún na Séad Castle open from 11am to 6pm – adults €5 and accompanied children free of charge

Children's Art Workshop starting 11 am in the Community Hall – for children aged 4+ (parents must supervise/stay). Nominal fee as a fundraiser for the local Playgroup. Projects include pirate masks, parrots, jewellery and other piratical pieces

Baltimore Pool Splash Party – 12noon to 2pm with plenty of games and challenges in the water suitable for all young pirates under 12.

.... Saturday continued.....

Historical Walk & Talk Leaving at 2.30pm from the Square. Visit locations where the Algerian pirates attacked in 1631 with commentary of this historic event

Pirate Sand Castles & Art on Sherkin Island. Take a ferry at 2pm from Baltimore Pier. Ferry tickets Adults €12 and children €4 (family tickets 2+2 €28).

Competition 2.30pm to 4.30pm: make sand castles or art on the Cow Strand. Prize giving in the Jolly Roger afterwards (various categories) and tasting of Black's Rum and Parrots' Blood.

Dún na Séad Castle – 7.30pm Short Reading by Rupert Stutchbury and cast of his play “We who are blameless”.

In the Square / Locally

Sing and swing along with life music in the Square outside the Waterfront / Bushe's Bar from 8.30pm to 11pm
Treasure Map competition and Free Tattoos
Enjoy dinner in one of the many local restaurants

Music on Sherkin – in the Jolly Roger

Music in the Sabin and special Pirate Menu

Competition: During the week prior to the festival weekend we have a display of dummy pirates in the village (these must be preregistered by 10 June and displayed from 14 to 23 June. Dummies can take part in the Sunday Parade for final judging.

Pre-register by texting 087-2638470

Prize €100 voucher to spend with local businesses.

€ 40 voucher to spend on art supplies / books for youth team.

Please Note:

- Venues/locations and activities may be subject to weather
- Children's fun & games may move into the Community Hall